The public will unfortunately be excluded from the status conference, due to the epidemiological dangers of the escalating COVID-19 crisis.

After the Court conducted its initial hearing in this matter on March 19, 2020, the Central District of California issued its Continuity of Operations Plan (“COOP”), effective March 23, 2020. In order to comply with the COOP and other public health guidance, the parties have agreed to an acceptable off-site location for the March 26 status conference. The status conference shall be held at the Alexandria Ballrooms, 501 S. Spring St., Los Angeles, CA 90013.

In order to be prepared to address this issue at Thursday’s status conference, the Court requests and encourages the Los Angeles Police Department and the Los Angeles County Sheriff’s Office to continue their joint efforts to establish procedures to be implemented for law enforcement personnel involved in facilitating the placement of homeless persons in appropriate shelter facilities in the City of Los Angeles, contract cities, and the unincorporated areas of Los Angeles County.
